

Adolescent Health and Risk Behaviours Symposium

Policy, Research and Practice

Wednesday 29 February 2012 (9.30-3.30)

Royal Society Edinburgh, 22-26 George Street, Edinburgh EH2 2PQ

9:30-10:00	Registration and coffee
10:00-10.05	Welcome and Introduction John Frank (Director, Scottish Collaboration for Public Health Research & Policy) to Chair
10:05-10:20	Opening introduction Grant Costello, Chair of Scottish Youth Parliament
10:20-11.00	Overview of current Scottish Government policies surrounding adolescent health and risk behaviours within the context of an assets based model Dr Harry Burns, Chief Medical Officer
11.00-11.15	Questions
11.15-11.45	Trends in adolescent risk behaviour and relationships between risk behaviours: comparison of two West of Scotland cohorts Helen Sweeting (MRC Social & Public Health Sciences Unit Glasgow)
11:45-12.15	Intervention programmes to prevent multiple risk behaviour: overview of systematic review Ruth Jepson (Scottish Collaboration for Public Health Research and Policy)
12.15-1.15	Lunch
1.15-2.30	Presentations on policy and practice developments <ol style="list-style-type: none"><li>1. City of Edinburgh Council - Multiple risk behaviour approach John Nicholls/David Bruce (City of Edinburgh Council)</li><li>2. Dumfries and Galloway – Life stages Michele McCoy/Jo Kopela (NHS Dumfries and Galloway)</li><li>3. Tayside – Taking an asset based approach to reducing teenage pregnancy Ann Eriksen (Sexual Health and BBV)/Felicity Snowsill (Tayside Healthy Community Collaborative: Teenage Pregnancy)</li></ol>
2.30-3.00	Themes from Health Behaviour in School-Aged Children: WHO Collaborative Cross-National Study (HBSC) Candace Currie
3.00-3.30	Comments from discussion panel &amp; open discussion
3:30	Close